

The 2017-2018 KLOPSTEG LECTURE SERIES in SCIENCE in HUMAN CULTURE

The Global Medical Cultures and Law Research Group at the Buffett Institute

Laura Foster

Indiana University

“Modalities of Materiality: Peoples, Plants and Patents in South Africa”

February 12, 2018

4:30-6:00pm

University Hall 201 – The Hagstrum Room

Reception to follow

Northwestern

BUFFETT INSTITUTE FOR GLOBAL STUDIES

Global Medical Cultures and Law

The Global Medical Cultures and Law Research Group is an initiative sponsored by the Buffett Institute for Global Studies and the Science in Human Culture Program. The faculty conveners have joined forces to examine three phenomena over the long twentieth century and into the present: the globalization of biomedicine, the codification of traditional medicine and the constitutive role of the law in these processes.